Help for today. Hope for tomorrow.

| A Cru Ministry |

Now What?

The WTR comes to town and life change happens. Then Monday morning hits - "reality" hits. The resources they purchased and the manual they left with are the only physical things remaining.

Making the right resources available, and even displayed in the right area of the Resource Center, is indeed a critical element of ongoing ministry. This helps people dig deeper and take further steps into their growth, and quite possibly their transformation to Christ. Doug Gulbranson, Event Sales Operations Manager, says, "Our job is to ensure the staff and volunteers onsite are trained and equipped to enhance the guest experience. This is important because the objective of the Event Resources Team (Resource Center) is to position help and hope that carries the message beyond the weekend and into day-to-day of every couple."

This month, we wanted to highlight this portion of our ministry with you - because it's something that is not as visible, but is equally a part of YOUR ministry with us and equally impacting lives.

Within the Resource Center at Weekend to Remember events, we don't have "sales" people, but we truly minister in these brief interactions. Many guests will feel like they are not qualified to grab a resource and lead their family, or lead a small group. Our staff and volunteers transcribe that grabbing a resource and making use of it is both easy and effective. "Hey, honey, we CAN do this!" Guests walk away feeling energized and equipped to grow in their own faith and maybe impact others...all from one little conversation.

One of those conversations: "Tell me about this Bible you have for sale. I've never owned a Bible." This man was flabbergasted that he could actually own his own Bible and purchased it right away! YOU are invested in all that FamilyLife does - in this case, you sent a man home with his first ever Bible...pretty cool, right?!

Doug stated that it was only a few months back that he wrote to his team of ministry supporters asking them to pray for additional workers. His team was short-handed. PRAISE GOD, Doug was able to write back to his supporters and let them know the prayer had been answered in a volunteer coming and bringing not only a great contribution, but also a much needed lift and encouragement to the hearts of the existing team.

That volunteer - Maggie Stelter, our daughter! Maggie is volunteering with this team two days a week and is thriving in many ways. Not only is she positively impacting a part of our ministry, it's an incredible blessing to watch how God has been at work in her life, including Bob's baptizing of Maggie in July!
